

Administrative Law

Brooks, Pierce, McLendon, Humphrey & Leonard, LLP has a national and regional administrative law and regulatory practice before federal, state, and municipal agencies affecting business clients in the banking, broadcasting, cable television, energy, environmental, health care, telecommunications, and utility industries. Our attorneys routinely participate in agency rulemaking proceedings, administrative hearings, licensing proceedings, and compliance activities. In addition, attorneys in our firm regularly litigate regulatory issues in federal and state courts and lobby federal and state legislative and executive officials on issues affecting regulated industries.
