

Tax-Exempt Financing

Tax-exempt financing involves many areas of law including federal and state taxation, federal and state securities regulations, banking, real estate, corporate, secured and unsecured transactions, government contracts, and municipal law. Our firm regularly serves as bond counsel, special tax counsel, borrower's counsel and bond purchaser's counsel, and revenue financing of various municipal issues.