

Tripp Speaks To Ymca North Carolina Youth Legislature

February 12, 2009

Brooks Pierce attorney Andrew Tripp spoke to 200 students at the Court Training section of the YMCA North Carolina Youth Legislature.

Andrew discussed the day-to-day practice of being a lawyer, and the importance of framing any representation as a story that your audience can understand and appreciate.

Several Brooks Pierce attorneys are actively involved with the Youth Legislature and participate in the moot court program.
