

Spainhour Presents "public Records In North Carolina"

November 20, 2008

Brooks Pierce attorney Elizabeth Spainhour presented "Public Records in North Carolina" as part of a Continuing Legal Education program entitled "What You Need to Know About Public Records and Open Meetings in North Carolina."

Elizabeth's presentation included an overview of the Public Records Act, exceptions to the Act, and who is covered under the Act as well as government responsibilities related to public records, procedures for accessing public records, and enforcement and current issues related to public records.

The program was sponsored by Lorman Education Services and was held in Raleigh, N.C. on November 20, 2008.