

Judicial Clerks

While we have a strong summer program at Brooks Pierce, we do not hire exclusively from our summer associate pool. We seek judicial clerks who are nearing the end of their clerkships.

We appreciate the experience that judicial clerks bring to our firm. Approximately one third of our attorneys served as law clerks to Federal and State court judges.

When considering judicial clerks, our decisions weigh heavily on factors such as character, educational background, employment history, and professional recommendations.