Brooks Pierce attorney Justin Outling has been named to the Triad Business Journal's 2016 40 Leaders Under Forty, an annual listing of the region's top young professionals.

The 2016 honorees were selected based on their professional and civic contributions. This year's class was honored at a cocktail and awards presentation on February 18.

Brooks Pierce's managing partner, Reid Phillips, commented that "Service to our community is a cornerstone of practice for an attorney at Brooks Pierce. I couldn't agree with the Business Journal more—Justin Outling is, indeed, one to watch."

Outling focuses his practice on business litigation and white-collar criminal defense. He helps businesses and professionals in a variety of industries, and has successfully brought and defended lawsuits in a wide range of matters. He is currently serving on the Greensboro City Council as the representative for District Three.
