MY PRACTICE

REAL PROPERTY

Erwin has more than 50 years of experience in handling commercial and other business property acquisitions, as well as commercial loan closings for both borrowers and lenders. He also has handled a variety of other real estate matters, such as rezoning proceedings, right-of-way issues and the preparation of property purchase and sale documents.

For 15 years, Erwin handled all of the low-income housing loan closings for Community Investment Corporation of North Carolina (now Community Investment Corporation of the Carolinas), a subsidiary of the North Carolina Bankers Association. While the majority of this work has transitioned to Brooks Pierce partner and real estate attorney Anna McLamb, Erwin is still involved and works closely with Anna.

Additionally, Erwin represents Guilford County Schools on a wide range of real property matters.

ESTATE PLANNING

Erwin works with individuals throughout the entire estate planning process and helps his clients transfer wealth in a tax-efficient manner.

ESTATE ADMINISTRATION

Erwin works with individuals and their families in the administration of estates and the complex legal issues that arise.
