Jessi Thaller-Moran focuses her practice on complex business matters, including issues of employee management and corporate governance. She uses her experience in the North Carolina Business Court to help clients identify possible legal issues, develop strategies for addressing those issues, and seek resolution through effective courtroom advocacy when appropriate.

MY PRACTICE

COMPLEX BUSINESS LITIGATION

As North Carolina's body of complex business law continues to grow, courtroom advocacy in those cases must also evolve. Jessi uses her experience representing clients in state and federal courts, including the North Carolina Business Court, to develop strategic and cost-effective methods for resolving legal issues relating to contracts, corporate governance, trade secrets, derivative litigation, and other complex business matters.
