MY PRACTICE

BIOGRAPHY & PRACTICE

After a successful professional career of over 46 years, Mike Meeker retired from Brooks Pierce in 2019. He practiced with the firm for his entire career, first as an equity partner and then of counsel for his last few years. The focus of his practice was on construction law and complex commercial litigation.

During his practice, Mike won a number of $1+ million judgments and arbitration awards throughout the Southeast, including the largest monetary judgment in a North Carolina construction case ever awarded and paid at that time.
