

Brooks Pierce Attorneys Recognized by North Carolina Super Lawyers

February 1, 2014

Subscribe to News and Insights

 Via RSS

 Via Email

Super Lawyers

Brooks Pierce is pleased to announce that 39 lawyers, representing 46% of the firm's attorneys, were recently recognized by North Carolina Super Lawyers.

Attorneys receiving this noteworthy distinction are:

GREENSBORO OFFICE

Jimmy Adams, Business Litigation

Marc Bishop, Business/Corporate

Arty Bolick, Construction Litigation

Forrest Campbell, Healthcare

Bill Cary, Employment and Labor

John Cross, Business/Corporate

Mark Davidson, Business/Corporate

Kearns Davis, Criminal Defense: White Collar

George House, Environmental Litigation

Bob King, Environmental

Dan McGinn, Employment and Labor

Bill McNairy, Tax

Jeff Oleynik, Bankruptcy Issues

Jim Phillips, Business Litigation

Reid Phillips, Business Litigation

David Sar, IP Litigation

Bob Singer, Banking

John Small, Bankruptcy: Business

Mack Sperling, Business Litigation
Jennifer Van Zant, Business Litigation
Howard Williams, Business/Corporate
Jim Williams, Business Litigation
Ed Winslow, Banking

RALEIGH OFFICE

Charles Coble, Business Litigation
Charles Marshall, Business Litigation
John Ormand, Business Litigation
Mark Prak, First Amendment
Ed Turlington, Business/Corporate

Attorneys by office who have been recognized as Rising Stars include:

GREENSBORO OFFICE

John Buford, Business Litigation
Clint Morse, Business Litigation
Ben Norman, Business Litigation
Joey Ponzi, Business Litigation
Adam Tarleton, Estate and Probate

RALEIGH OFFICE

Wes Camden, Criminal Defense: White Collar
Katherine Clayton, Bankruptcy; Business
Eric David, Business Litigation
Elizabeth Spainhour, Communications

WILMINGTON OFFICE

Thomas Varnum, IP

Attachments:

Attachment	Size
------------	------

 news_182.pdf	20.6 KB
--	------------