

Brooks Pierce Attorney Ed Winslow Served as a Principal Speaker for the Dan K. Moore Program in Ethics

10.03.2013

Topics covered in the program included:

- The changing demographics of law firms and implications for training new attorneys
- Expectations of in-house counsel regarding training of their attorneys and those in the firms representing their organizations
- Exploration of new methods of legal service delivery, including pricing and structure

Winslow serves as Managing Partner of Brooks Pierce. His law practice is focused in the areas of banking, corporate and tax. During his legal career Winslow has served as General Counsel for NC Bankers Association, President of the Greensboro Bar Association, and of the North America Council for Geneva Group International (GGI). Winslow is a frequent speaker and writer on financial services law, law practice management and North Carolina legal history.

PEOPLE

Edward C. Winslow III