

Brooks Pierce Sponsors North Carolina Lawyer Assistance Program's Minority Outreach Conference

03.02.2020

Brooks Pierce was proud to sponsor the North Carolina Lawyer Assistance Program's (NC LAP) Minority Outreach Conference. The event was held Feb. 28 at the Durham Convention Center.

The Minority Outreach Conference is an annual event that brings together African American leaders within the North Carolina bar as well as psychologists and mental health professionals to discuss issues and solutions.

As a dynamic firm, Brooks Pierce is committed to actively promoting and increasing diversity internally, as well as supporting, with its time and resources, organizations that seek to augment diversity and inclusion in the communities it calls home. At Brooks Pierce, the words diversity and inclusion reflect a commitment to respect all and to cultivate a welcoming environment for everyone.
