

Clint Morse and Jamey Lowdermilk to Present CLE on COVID-19 and Bankruptcy

05.04.2020

Brooks Pierce attorneys Clint Morse and Jamey Lowdermilk will present on considerations for commercial bankruptcy practitioners amidst the pandemic in a program hosted by myLawCLE.com. The presentation will be held May 8 at 3 p.m.

The presentation, "Considerations for Customers Distressed Due to COVID-19," will discuss vulnerabilities businesses face when their customers declare bankruptcy and how businesses can minimize their risk through an action plan.

Morse represents state, regional, and national businesses in various bankruptcy/financial restructuring matters. He enjoys challenging cases involving extensive court work, and thrives on first day motions in Bankruptcy Court where there is an evidentiary hearing on short notice that can decide the outcome of the case.

Lowdermilk brings her experience as a law clerk in the U.S. Bankruptcy Court to guide her clients through the complicated bankruptcy process. She also represents businesses and individuals in complex commercial matters in state and federal courts.
