

David Smyth to Present on Insider Trading Compliance in Washington, D.C.

10.05.2015

Brooks Pierce partner David Smyth will discuss how to comply with insider trading regulations at the fall conference for the Mid-Atlantic Chapter of the Society of Corporate Secretaries & Governance Professionals. His presentation, titled “Insider Trading: Crafting Your Prevention Program,” will focus on how governance professionals can help their organizations navigate matters related to insider trading, effectively comply with relevant regulations, and create programs that will prevent these issues from arising. The presentation will be made jointly with Dixie Johnson of King & Spalding. The conference is being held Oct. 8 in Washington, D.C.
