

Ed Winslow to Serve as Moderator at North Carolina Bankers Association Management Team Conference

10.19.2013

Brooks Pierce Attorney Ed Winslow will serve as a moderator of a panel consisting of senior representatives of the Federal Reserve Board, the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and the North Carolina Office of the Commissioner of Banks, at the North Carolina Bankers Association Management Team to be held October 20-22, 2013 at the Pinehurst Resort.

The conference is designed to help North Carolina banks strengthen their management teams, connect them with industry leaders and keep informed about the latest issues in banking.

Winslow is Managing Partner of Brooks Pierce. His law practice is focused in the areas of banking, corporate and tax. During his legal career Winslow has served as General Counsel for NC Bankers Association, President of the Greensboro Bar Association, and a member of the North America Council for Geneva Group International (GGI). Winslow is a frequent speaker and writer on financial services law, law practice management and North Carolina legal history.

PEOPLE

Edward C. Winslow III