

Managing Partner Presents at International Commerce Conference in Toronto

11.16.2011

Ed Winslow, Managing Partner of Brooks Pierce, recently gave a presentation to over 200 accountants and lawyers from around the world at the Geneva Group International (“GGI”) World Conference in Toronto, Canada.

Winslow spoke on “Professional Services in North America,” providing perspectives on attracting and retaining the best lawyers, creating value for clients, and strategic planning, highlighting differences between American, European and Asian ways of doing business and targeting opportunities for collaboration in cross border commerce.

GGI is a global network of professional, independent accounting, consulting and law firms with over 300 member firms in 90 countries around the world, headquartered in Switzerland, and consistently ranked among the top ten associations worldwide. Brooks Pierce joined GGI in 2011 to extend the firm’s capabilities to serve clients and deliver results in global commerce worldwide.

PEOPLE

Edward C. Winslow III