

Tarleton Presents at NC Bar Association Start-Up Boot Camp

10.13.2010

The Second Annual Boot Camp was a two-day program dedicated to the practice details of starting and running a law practice. Audience members included lawyers just starting a new practice as well as those looking in inject new ideas and energy into their existing firm's marketing efforts.

Adam focuses his practice on assisting businesses and individuals in planning and implementing a variety of corporate and estate planning transactions, while also maintaining an active commercial litigation practice.

PEOPLE

Adam P.M. Tarleton