

Brooks Pierce Attorneys Present at NCBA Administrative Law Annual Meeting

03.29.2022

Brooks Pierce attorneys Clint Pinyan and Claire O'Brien presented at the North Carolina Bar Association's (NCBA) Administrative Law Section annual meeting on March 25. Pinyan and O'Brien provided federal and North Carolina administrative case law updates to attendees.

Pinyan represents both regulators and regulated businesses and professionals, giving him extensive experience on both sides of the regulatory process. He also advises businesses and professionals and litigates on their behalf on regulatory issues. Pinyan has litigated numerous antitrust, government contracting, health care and other cases focusing on both federal and state trade and commercial regulation and government programs.

O'Brien counsels clients on a myriad of health care issues, including compliance with federal and state regulations and day-to-day operations of health care facilities. She has significant experience advising on regulatory compliance across a broad range of industries, including counseling companies and individuals on interactions with HHS, FDA, USDA, FTC and the National Advertising Division (NAD).
