

Brooks Pierce Partner Participates in North Carolina Bar Association Panel Discussion

11.05.2021

Brooks Pierce partner Bob Saunders recently participated in a panel discussion hosted by the North Carolina Bar Association (NCBA) Young Lawyers Division (YLD) Civic Engagement Committee on “Examples of Lawyer Leadership: Perspectives from Across the Non-Profit and Public Interest Sectors.”

Saunders helps all types of exempt organizations, including charities, religious organizations, educational organizations, trade associations, social welfare organizations and social clubs, in matters ranging from formation and operation to merger and dissolution. He serves as general counsel for exempt organizations and advises on tax and governance issues including intermediate sanctions, unrelated business income, and the use of for-profit subsidiaries and single member limited liability companies.
