

Brooks Pierce Partner Presents at NCBA Litigation Section CLE

05.12.2021

Brooks Pierce partner Kearns Davis will present at the North Carolina Bar Association's Litigation Section Continuing Legal Education (CLE) series on May 19. The CLE will include different sessions dedicated to providing insight into changes in the practice of law in light of the pandemic, including government investigations, parallel civil and criminal proceedings and more.

Davis' session, "The Wolf is at the Door: When Law Enforcement Contacts Your Client," discusses best legal practices when a client is contacted by the authorities, whether it be a grand jury subpoena, a visit from a federal agent or a search warrant on their home or business.

Davis leads Brooks Pierce's white-collar defense and investigations practice and handles a broad range of federal and business litigation. A former federal prosecutor, he has tried jury cases at all levels of federal and North Carolina trial courts, and he represents clients in U.S. trial and appellate courts across the country. Among other honors and awards, he is listed in North Carolina Super Lawyers Top 10 attorneys in all categories (Thomson Reuters, 2016-2021), The Best Lawyers in America® in White-Collar Criminal Defense (2010-2021), and Chambers USA: America's Leading Lawyers for Business in White-Collar Crime and Government Investigations (Band 1) (2012-20). Best Lawyers has repeatedly named him "Lawyer of the Year" for Greensboro in White-Collar Criminal Defense (2013, 2016, 2018 & 2020), and his peers elected him in 2020 to permanent membership in Business North Carolina's "Legal Elite Hall of Fame" for Criminal Defense (2020).
