

Brooks Pierce Sponsors North Carolina Lawyer Assistance Program 2019 Minority Outreach Conference

02.12.2019

Brooks Pierce was pleased to sponsor the closing reception at the North Carolina Lawyers Assistance Program's (NCLAP) 2019 Minority Outreach Conference. The event was held Jan. 18 at the Durham Convention Center.

The Minority Outreach Conference brings together African-American leaders within the North Carolina bar as well as psychologists and mental health professionals to discuss real issues facing minority attorneys. About 800 people attended this year's event, which included three speakers and a roundtable discussion.

For more information about the annual conference, click here.