

Edgar Fisher Recognized by State Bar

12.26.2011

Brooks Pierce partner Edgar Fisher was recently recognized by the North Carolina State Bar on the occasion of his 50th anniversary of practicing law. Edgar was honored at the State Bar's Annual Meeting during the 50 Year Lawyers Luncheon.

Recognized as a member of the "Legal Elite" in Real Estate Law by Business North Carolina magazine, Edgar has worked extensively with developers of shopping centers, office buildings, and residential developments, including land acquisition, formation of the legal entity, and closing of the mortgage loan. He also works in the area of estate planning and administration.

He has been actively involved with Greensboro College, West Market Street United Methodist Church, Childrens Home of Winston-Salem, and Greensboro Duke Alumni Association.

Brooks Pierce is pleased to celebrate this significant milestone with our friend and partner.
