

Kim Marston Named to Board of Directors for the National Conference for Community and Justice of the Piedmont Triad

10.13.2020

Brooks Pierce partner Kim Marston was recently named to the board of directors for the National Conference for Community and Justice of the Piedmont Triad (NCCJ).

NCCJ is a human relations organization working to build communities free of bias, bigotry and racism by promoting understanding and respect among all cultures, races and religions.

Marston focuses her practice on commercial litigation and professional liability defense, representing businesses and professionals in state and federal courts, including the North Carolina Business Court. She serves on the board of directors for the Guilford Green Foundation & LGBTQ Center and the North Carolina Association of Defense Attorneys.
