

Sar Appointed to Trademark Specialty Committee

02.08.2012

Brooks Pierce partner David Sar has been appointed to the first Trademark Specialty Committee of the North Carolina State Bar Board of Legal Specialization. If approved, this Trademark Specialty would be the first of its kind in the nation.

David represents clients in commercial disputes and matters pertaining to technology and intellectual property. He litigates and tries cases in state and federal courts, as well as before government agencies. He handles business transactions involving trademarks, copyrights, trade secrets, and technology. He has handled the prosecution or maintenance of over 2,000 trademark and copyright registrations, both within the United States and internationally. He has been recognized repeatedly as a "Best Lawyer" in Litigation - Intellectual Property, Litigation - Patent, Patent Law, and Trademark Law by Best Lawyers in America in conjunction with U.S. News & World Report.
