

Brooks Pierce Attorney Named Co-Chair of Triad Stage Board of Trustees

06.16.2022

Brooks Pierce attorney Collins Saint has been named co-chair for the Triad Stage Board of Trustees. Their term began April 18.

Triad Stage, a nonprofit, regional, professional theater that performs classic and contemporary works in Greensboro and Winston-Salem, has a national reputation as one of the leading regional theaters in North Carolina.

Saint advises and litigates on behalf of public and private educational institutions and school boards on an array of education law issues, including special education and disability issues, civil rights laws, and tort claims. They also represent businesses in a variety of industries to resolve disputes, litigating in state and federal court when necessary. Saint has a particular focus on diversity and civil rights issues, including issues related to race, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, disability, and religion. They are actively involved in the community, and has served on the Board of Trustees for Triad Stage since 2018 and also serves as chair for the Triad Stage's Organization Health and Culture Committee.

PEOPLE

S. Collins Saint