

Brooks Pierce Welcomes New Associate

06.16.2021

Leading North Carolina law firm Brooks Pierce is pleased to announce Jimmy Chang has joined the firm as an associate, working primarily in the firm's Greensboro office.

Chang's practice focuses on commercial litigation, and his experience includes representing clients in disputes related to business, real estate, construction and trusts and estates. Prior to joining Brooks Pierce, Chang was an associate at a Los Angeles commercial litigation and real estate firm. He began his legal career as an in-house attorney for a full-service real estate company in Los Angeles.

"We are pleased to add another talented attorney to our litigation practice," said Brooks Pierce managing partner Reid Phillips. "Jimmy brings a strong background and skill set that will benefit our clients."

Chang received his bachelor's degree from the University of California, Santa Barbara and law degree from the University of Southern California Gould School of Law. He is licensed to practice law in California and North Carolina.
