

Katie Wong Named to Leadership Raleigh 2023 Class

09.12.2022

Brooks Pierce attorney Katie Wong was recently welcomed into the Leadership Raleigh Class 45. The program will kick off with an opening retreat in October 2022 and will continue through July 2023.

Leadership Raleigh is a program organized by the Raleigh Chamber of Commerce that helps prepare the community's future leaders. For more the 50 years, the program has provided business and community leaders with the opportunity to discover the Triangle Region while building lasting relationships with professional peers.

Wong represents individuals and businesses of all sizes in litigation in state and federal courts. She counsels clients through a wide variety of complex commercial matters and has experience with both civil and criminal procedures.
