

Kearns Davis to Present Federal Criminal Case Law Update

09.13.2023

Brooks Pierce partner Kearns Davis will present his 18th annual Federal Criminal Case Law Update at the North Carolina Bar Association's (NCBA) 2023 Annual Review on October 19-20. Davis will address significant federal cases from the U.S. Supreme Court and U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit. He will be joined by Jan Pritchett, managing partner and trial attorney at Schlosser & Pritchett, who will discuss key recent decisions by the North Carolina Supreme Court and North Carolina Court of Appeals.

The Annual Review is designed to provide participants with the latest updates on key court decisions and significant amendments to legislation and policies covering a variety of topics and practice areas. Program highlights include updates regarding bankruptcy law; civil law; criminal law; education law; family law; privacy & data security law; real property law and workers' compensation law.

Davis is an acclaimed courtroom advocate, a veteran of both high-profile cases and sensitive matters resolved confidentially. A former federal prosecutor and a Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers, he has tried jury cases at all levels of federal and North Carolina trial courts, and he represents clients in U.S. trial and appellate courts across the country. His clients have included public companies, private businesses, elected officials of both major parties, Hall of Fame athletes, Division I coaches, corporate executives, and professionals including doctors, accountants, professors, and numerous lawyers and law firms. He served as president of the North Carolina Bar Association in 2016-17.

To register for the event, click here.

PEOPLE

Kearns Davis

SERVICES

White Collar Defense & Investigations