Brooks Pierce partner Anna Tison published an article with Law360 on May 16 looking at the differences between Mid-Law and BigLaw summer associate programs.

In the article, Tison discusses the differences between summer associate programs at these types of law firms and what they can learn from the other, in terms of success. As a previous summer associate at both BigLaw and Mid-Law firms, Tison provides invaluable insights into summer programming, several of which have been implemented at Brooks Pierce.

Tison represents buyers, sellers, developers, lenders and investors in complex commercial real estate transactions. She provides counsel in financing, joint ventures, leasing, acquisitions and dispositions of real estate.
